THANK YOUs for directly affecting the making of this record: Carlos Estrada Vega who set me on the path over wine and pizole (thanks to Rob and Dawn), Conor Lynch for being the first to welcome me into the family, Eddie Gomez for faith before action, Justin Collins for being the heart soul and enthusiasm of this record, Adam Landry for his patient genius, Rob Crowell for the sickest finger moves and the easiest manner on planet earth, Matt Lynott for a friendship beyond bands, John Baldwin for the truest of ears and his kindness, Kim & Scott Collins for the adoption of myself into the Collins Clan, Annie McCue for starting this whole record off grandly with the Good Luck Club, Amy G Davis for friendship and a warm home base in Nashville, CT Stephenson for being the first to buy me a beer at the 5 Spot, Dave Gleason for the mighty Nashville tour buddy welcome, Derek Hoke for that fucking song "The Lights", Kenny Vaughn and Justin & The Cosmics for telling me to move to Nashville in the first place and TG Shepperd for the message from God that got me there (How can you refuse God and Elvis!), Stacie Huckeba for the invite to have Thanksgiving in Nashville that lead to all of this, Charlie Louvin for one brief but powerful moment in my life, Lulu for just being the coolest studio dog in Nashville, Bob Harmon for the friendship and fine beer, Heather Johnson for being my hero, Nate Million for listening over and over...and over, My daughter Emma for being the first to hear this thing and to push me to risk it, My son Aaron for telling me to remove his only co-write for another tune that he liked better, Son Julian for being monstrously inspiring during this journey whether he knew it or not, so many fucking great people in Nashville who I can now call friends and so many great folks at home and abroad who've pressed me, encouraged me and inspired these songs, to Karen Deitch for guidance along the way, Jim Herrington for the climbing, the drinking and the stylish brotherhood, My folks for being, well, my very bad-ass folks, Ralph Waxman & Sanjay Pandya for welcoming me to Los Angeles in those first days, Johnny Haney for the mad wild beauty of his words, P Jay Fidler for the inspiration and the image that graces this cover, CJ Hutchens for hours of philosophising with me while tweaking my guitars, and for support during it all Mark Panick, Geoff Sherr, Prem Shah, Megan Breen, Chris & Darren, Jeff DeLia, Joel Friemark and Mitch Schneider. And lastly, Cindy Jane Wasserman, without whom none of this would have happened because I'd still be tripping around in the dark.
